In his Temple doth every man speak of his honor.

LONDON,
Printed by T. R. for Thelamon Stephens,
at the gilded Lyon in S. Pauls Church-yard 1656.
My tender age in sorrow did beginne
And still with sicknesses and shame
Thou didst so punish sinne;
That I became
Molt thinne.

With thee
Let me combine,
And feel this day thy victory:
For, if I imp my wing on thine,
Affliction shall advance the flight in me.

Though foolishly he left the same,
Decaying more and more,
Till he became
Molt poor.

With thee
O let me rise
As Larks, harmoniously,
And sing this day thy victories:
Then shall the fall further the flight in me.
